At the RasTafari Family Centre (RFC), in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, we are proud to share our vision of empowerment and community upliftment. At the RFC our commitment is deeply rooted in the guiding principle: "Let the Hungry be fed, the Naked clothes, the Sick nourished, the Aged protected, and the infants cared for."

What is our Mission?

The RasTafari Family Centre (RFC), in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, is committed to providing unwavering support and sustainable development initiatives. We strive to foster resilience and empowerment within our community, delivering dependable services with integrity and professionalism. Through local collaboration, we aim to advance equity, preserve cultural heritage and champion social justice.

What is our Vision?

The RasTafari Family Centre (RFC), in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia: envisions a world where all Ethiopians thrive in dignity, hope, and opportunity, fully participating in and contributing to all aspects of life. We aspire to cultivate a vibrant community where every individual is valued, empowered, and supported in realizing their fullest potential.

What are our Core Values?

The RasTafari Family Centre (RFC), in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia: core values are: Family Unity – nurturing strong community bonds. Equity and Justice – committed to fairness and equality. Kindness and Compassion – as our work is infused with empathy, supporting those in need. Transparency and Integrity – upholding honesty and ethical standards. Professionalism and Excellence: striving in delivering quality services. Collaboration and Partnership: sharing goals and aspirations. Sustainability and Innovation: committed to lasting impacts. Advocacy and Empowerment: for community rights. Adaptability and Resilience: to meet community needs.